

MSK Pallet shrink wrap machines and shrink frames - Cold end packaging lines

Cost saving heat shrink wrap: shrink hooder and shrink frames for the glass industry

The quality requirements according to DIN ISO 9000 ff of beverage and food packaging have risen steadily in recent years. In regular audits quality control inspectors certify the production processes. This also applies to the production lines of the manufacturer's bottles and glasses.

Pallet shrink wrap machine MSK Paratech - the hood applicator with the parachute principle

The unique shrink wrap machine MSK Paratech is still the best selling hood applicator. The secret of success of this pallet shrink wrap machine lies in the simplicity and exceptional ease of maintenance of the machine:

Benefits shrink wrap machine MSK Paratech at a glance

- Ease of maintenance
- Reduced downtime to a minimum
- Easily accessible ground-level film supply
- High reliability due to mechanical permanent film-opening
- Longitudinal and transversal transport of pallets is possible
- Reliable processing of even the lowest shrink film qualities
- Optional: complete maintenance free timing belt design

Versions

- For the application of up to two automatic film formats or thickness in the same machine
- Also available in maintenance free timing belt design

Performance

- Packaging performance of up to 80 Pal/h.